

Access and Equity Policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to provide a framework of reference for providing and maintaining training services that reflect fair and reasonable opportunity for all clients, regardless of their diversity; allowing everyone to freely participate in the learning environment free from discrimination, harassment, bullying and vilification.

2. Policy Statement

The National Maritime College (NMC) is committed to providing quality training and assessment products and services in compliance with ethical business practices and according to federal and state maritime guidelines and needs of the boating public.

NMC promotes, encourages and values equity and diversity regarding clients and will ensure services offered are provided in a fair and equitable manner to everyone, free from bias.

NMC is committed to providing flexible learning and assessment options, allowing clients alternatives which recognize the diversity of their individual needs and circumstances aiding them in their learning goals.

NMC will ensure:

- a) all training and assessment policies and procedures incorporate access and equity principles.
- b) all learners have equitable access to the benefits of training and assessment irrespective of their gender, age, race, religion, culture, linguistic background, marital status, geographic location, socio-economic background, disability, sexual orientation, family responsibility or political conviction.
- c) all nominations and enrolments into training courses and programs will be always conducted in an ethical and responsible manner, ensuring fairness and compliance with Equal Opportunity legislation; and
- d) all learners/clients have equitable access to training resources, facilities, equipment, support services, information, training and assessment personnel, materials, assessment opportunities, training opportunities.

3. Definitions

Access and equity means policies and approaches are responsive to the individual needs of clients whose age, gender, cultural or ethnic background, disability, sexuality, language skills, literacy or numeracy level, unemployment, imprisonment, or remote location may present a barrier to access, participation and the achievement of suitable outcomes.

Access and Equity Policy

3.1 Discrimination

Discrimination occurs when a person is treated less favourably than others due to the person's circumstances, characteristics, or beliefs.

a) Direct Discrimination

Direct discrimination takes place when a person, organisation or group of persons is treated less fairly than others based on stereotyped beliefs or views.

b) Indirect Discrimination

Indirect discrimination includes rules, practices, or policies which appear to be non-discriminatory and equally applicable, but operate in such a way that certain groups of people are excluded without just cause.

3.2 Workplace Harassment

Harassment is any behaviour which is unwelcome, offends, humiliates, or intimidates a person and causes the work environment to become unpleasant. If a person is being harassed, then their ability to do their work is affected as they often become stressed and suffer health problems.

Harassment may result from behaviour which is not intended to offend or harm, such as jokes or unwanted attention however, this does not mean that it is lawful.

- d) Spreading rumours
- e) Comments or jokes about a person's disability, pregnancy, sexuality, age, or religion

Access and Equity Policy

- f) Repeated questions about one's personal life.
- g) Belittling someone's work or contribution in a meeting.
- h) Threats, insults, or abuse
- i) Offensive obscene language
- j) Obscene telephone calls, unsolicited letters, faxes, and emails

3.5 Non-Verbal Harassment

Examples of non-verbal harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Leering (e.g. staring at a woman's breasts)
- b) Putting offensive material on notice boards, computer screen savers and emails
- c) Wolf whistling
- d) Nude or pornographic posters
- e) Displaying sexist or racist cartoons or literature
- f) Demoting, failing to promote, or transferring someone because they refuse requests for sexual favours.
- g) Following someone home from work
- h) Standing remarkably close to someone or unnecessarily leaning over them
- i) Mimicking someone with a disability
- j) Practical jokes that are unwelcome
- k) Ignoring someone, or being cold and distant to them
- l) Crude hand or body gestures

3.6 Physical Harassment

Examples of physical harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Unwelcome physical contact such as kissing, hugging, pinching, patting, touching, or brushing up against a person.
- b) Indecent or sexual assault or attempted assault
- c) Hitting, pushing, shoving, spitting, or throwing objects at a person
- d) Unfastening a person's attire

4. Policy Principles

NMC will not accept any form of discrimination and we will apply the following principles in support of access and equity:

4.1 Access and Equity Principles

- a) NMC abides by access and equity principles.
- b) NMC will respect a client's right to privacy, confidentiality and be sensitive to client needs.

Access and Equity Policy

- c) NMC provides equal opportunity for all learners and is responsive to the individual needs of clients whose gender, pregnancy, race, marital status, sexuality, age, family/carer responsibilities, disability, transgender, political conviction, cultural or ethnic background, linguistic background, religious belief, geographic location, socio-economic background, employment/unemployment, imprisonment may present a barrier to access, participation and achievement of suitable outcomes.
- d) At enrolment, clients will be asked to identify personal needs or circumstances that may exist and for which they may require additional support (See Enrolment Policy).
- e) NMC will ensure that all staff, employees, and contractors have access to the information and support needed to prevent discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimization, and vilification or to deal with it appropriately if it occurs.
- f) NMC seeks to create a learning environment where all students are respected and can develop their full potential.
- g) All clients/participants are given fair and reasonable opportunity to attend and complete training.
- h) All staff are given fair and reasonable opportunity to participate in relevant decision-making processes and the allocation of resources and services as required to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.
- i) Deficiencies will be investigated to determine whether a breach or policy deficiency exists. Should a discrepancy be proven, the impact of that breach or deficiency will be identified along with how the policy should be amended to eliminate the breach or deficiency in the future.
- j) All perceived deficiencies in the Access and Equity Policy are to be documented, assessed, and reviewed by the Director.
- k) NMC will demonstrate its commitment by:
 - i. Selecting participants according to a fair and non-discriminatory process
 - ii. Making its training relevant for a diverse student population
 - iii. Providing suitable access to facilities and resources
 - iv. Providing appropriate support services
 - v. Providing appropriate complaints procedures
 - vi. Consulting with relevant industry/community groups
 - vii. Raising staff, contractor, and participant awareness of equity issues.

Access and Equity Policy

4.2 Equal Opportunity

NMC is an equal opportunity company and does not discriminate against or favour target groups in either recruiting or training, unless prescribed by funding contracts.

Target Groups are defined as:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders.
- People with a disability.
- People from non-English speaking backgrounds.
- People in transition and other special groups (i.e. people re-entering the workforce, long term unemployed, sole parents, people with literacy problems, and those who have been institutionalised).
- Women.
- People from regionally isolated communities.

4.3 Special Needs/Considerations

- a) Clients/participants intending to enrol for training with NMC are requested prior to enrolment to advise if they have any disability, physical or other impairment which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment.
- b) Clients/participants are encouraged to discuss any 'special needs' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.
- c) NMC, in collaboration with the Client/participant, will assess the potential for the Client/Participant to successfully complete the training which may include flexible delivery options to optimise the ease and benefit of their learning. However, no compromise to the integrity of the assessment against competency will be allowed.
- d) Clients/Participants with a disability are required to have the ability to fulfil the core requirements of the models of competence to attain the relevant certification. However, it is recognised that flexibility in arrangements may need to be implemented.

4.4 Language, Literacy and Numeracy

- a) Each course/program sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy, and numeracy skills of learners, with which NMC must abide.
- b) NMC makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy, and numeracy issues of clients where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the training and the integrity, equity, and fairness of assessment.
- c) Where a Client/Participant is deemed, either prior to enrolment or throughout the training program, to possess a lower level of language, literacy or numeracy than is the minimum requirement for the requirements of the training, NMC will provide appropriate advice and support to the Client/Participant regarding further learning options.

Access and Equity Policy

At times, further language or literacy development or remedial assistance may be required to be completed prior to the continuation or completion of the course of study.

4.5 Harassment

- a) Harassment will not be tolerated at NMC. If harassment occurs, the person responsible will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Disciplinary action will be taken against any staff or client involved in such behaviour. This may include termination of employment and removal of the client from the training course.
- b) Serious cases of harassment may constitute a criminal offence.
- c) NMC will not tolerate behaviour which is sexual harassment and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.

4.6 Bullying and Violence

- a) NMC will not tolerate bullying or violent behaviour and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- b) NMC recognises bullying and violence demeans and infringes the rights of individuals and groups, damaging the work and learning environment.

4.7 Vilification

- a) NMC will not tolerate behaviour which vilifies another person and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.

4.8 Complaints

- a) SEABLUE CO encourages informal resolutions of discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimization, and vilification grievances in the first instance, as close to the source as possible, with the option of conciliation or investigation of the complaint if necessary.
- b) Complaints will be investigated in a confidential manner and action will be taken to ensure that the discrimination/harassment stops. Appropriate warning or disciplinary action will be taken where harassment is found to have occurred.
- c) Those responsible for advising, conciliating, or investigating a complaint must act fairly and impartially, they must act without bias and avoid any conflict of interest the respondent must be given a fair opportunity to know the case against him or her and to be given the opportunity to make a considered response.
- d) All staff, clients and contractors involved with NMC's complaint procedures will be treated with respect and courtesy. Enquiries and complaints will be dealt with in a sensitive, equitable, fair, and confidential manner. All attempts will be made to deal with matters expeditiously while ensuring all parties are provided with sufficient time to prepare and or respond.

Access and Equity Policy

- e) NMC acknowledges that it is of paramount importance and in the best interests of all parties that confidentiality is maintained during these procedures.
- f) NMC encourages the reporting of behaviour that breaches equal opportunity policy but will not tolerate vexatious or frivolous complaints.

4.9 Victimisation

- a) For complaints to be brought forward, complainants must feel secure in the knowledge that procedures will be followed without fear of reprisal.
- b) SEABLUE CO will not victimise or treat any person unfairly for making a harassment complaint.
- c) NMC will not tolerate behaviour of victimisation of another person and expects all staff, contractors, and clients to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- d) Any complaint of victimisation will be treated in the same manner as a complaint of discrimination, sexual harassment, or vilification.

5. NMC Responsibilities

NMC has a legal and moral obligation to provide equal opportunity in an environment free from discrimination for staff, contractors, and clients to ensure that discrimination/harassment does not occur in the workplace.

NMC will:

- Maintain policies and procedures for equal opportunities for all staff, contractors, and clients/participants.
- Disseminate policies and procedures to staff, contractors, and clients/participants.
- Examine all policies and practices, as they affect staff, contractors, and clients to ensure the elimination of discrimination and harassment.
- Ensure that there is no discrimination against any individual client or group of clients or staff, in access to facilities, products and services.
- Educate staff and contractors on the general goals and philosophy of equal opportunity together with the rationale for policies and practices which are adopted.
- Eliminate sexist and other discriminator language from all publications and discourage the use of such language in all printed material and in the speech of its staff, contractors, and clients.
- Establish and maintain mechanisms to deal with complaints.

5.1 Director Responsibilities

NMC Directors and Managers are responsible for client equity and will not condone nor engage in discriminatory/harassing behaviour.

The General Manager is responsible for ensuring that all staff are aware of this policy and that complaints will be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the Complaints and Appeals Policy.

Access and Equity Policy

The Director and Manager(s) are to ensure staff act according to this policy and all clients are made aware of their rights and responsibilities pursuant to this policy.

The General Manager will maintain the confidentiality of all complaints. If the Director feels that they are not the appropriate person to deal with the complaint, they will refer the matter to either a member of the management team or an external independent party for review and/or action.

5.2 Staff, Contractors, and Clients Responsibilities

NMC staff, contractors and clients have the responsibility to:

- Act to prevent harassment, discrimination, and victimization against others.
- Respect differences among other staff, clients, and contractors, such as cultural and social diversity.
- Treat people fairly, without discrimination, harassment, or victimization.
- Respect the rights of others.
- Respect people's rights to privacy and confidentiality.
- Refuse to join in with these behaviours.
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours.
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint.
- Observe site rules or behaviour guidelines set by NMC;

Trainers/Assessors.

- Behave in a manner that does not interfere with the learning of others; and
- Conduct themselves in a responsible manner while in training.
- Ensure the rights of all clients to have their say, balanced with the responsibility to listen to others and allow others to have their say.

If a NMC staff, contractor or client/participant feels harassed, bullied or otherwise a victim of unwelcome behaviour, the staff, contractor, or client is encouraged to inform the person where the behaviour is unwanted, unacceptable and/or offensive. If the staff, contractor, or client/participant feels unable to approach the person, or if the behaviour continues following their request that the behaviour cease, the General Manager SEABLUE CO should be contacted.

6. Legislation

This policy reflects our commitment to the following legislation:

- a) Age Discrimination Act 2004 (Federal)
- b) Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Federal)
- c) Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Federal)
- d) Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Federal)
- e) Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 (Queensland)

Access and Equity Policy

7. Ethics and Code of Practice

The nature of the training in groups and the inherent risks involved in boating place some limitations on access to the training for safety reasons and for the benefit of others attending the training.

National Maritime College (NMC) has adopted the following 'Code of Ethics'

- Act honestly and fairly in all business dealings with the consumer.
- Maintain professional courtesy and integrity always.
- Ensure all advertising and representations are truthful and accurate.
- At all times act in an environmentally responsible manner
- Do all that is possible to promote safe boating and education practices.
- Render accurate, truthful, and expert advice to the boating community
- Strive for excellence in quality of service to customers

NMC has adopted the following Access and Equity Code of Practice:

- NMC will not discriminate against any individual based on race, colour, sex, or religion.
- All students, staff, and trainers are to be treated equally.
Participants/clients from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- NMC boating courses are delivered in English as Boating Terminology has a language of its own which is linked with internationally recognised maritime rules and regulations. English is the universally accepted language of seafarers.

The Director and senior management are responsible for ensuring that all staff and trainers have details of the access and equity policy. The information is available in trainer guides, student information and on NMC's web site. The information is included in the induction and training given to staff and trainers.

8. Records management

All documentation regarding complaints concerning Access and Equity matters are maintained in accordance with Records Management Policy. (See Records Management Policy)

9. Monitoring and Improvement

All Access and Equity practices are monitored by NMC and areas for improvement identified and acted upon. (See Continuous Improvement Policy)
